Referral may be made by: Commander/First Sergeant, Chaplain, Family Advocacy Personnel, Medical Personnel, and Airman and Family Readiness Center Personnel.

Certificates of care may be issued for a period not to exceed 1 month (i.e. 1st - 31st of the month). They may be reissued after that time by an authorized referral agency with an original signature.

Prior to an exceptional family member's enrollment, a written statement of care and staff:child ratio requirement must be provided by the Flight's medical advisor.

Reservations must be made in person, with completed certificate with original signature from referring official, and immunizations on file, starting the 14th of the month for the following month and no later than close of business on the Friday prior to the scheduled event.

CDC ages are 6 months thru 5 years unless the child is in kindergarten. Youth center ages are 5 years (in kindergarten) thru 12 years old.

For additional information, please call the CDC/Youth Centers at 456-4139/2735/3448
